

The Baladi panel from Made Goods repurposes wood used as a mold for cast marble window screens in India and backs it with mirror, spotlighting stunning geometric shapes.

TREND exotic

A map of many cultures, our exotically themed lounge travels from Africa to Asia and back. This thoroughly modern translation emphasizes intricate pattern work, reclaimed and rare woods, and a subtle neutral palette pumped up with flashes of metal. Handcrafted appeal scores high marks here, balanced out by a few carefully chosen examples of contemporary design. — Tracy Bulla

Wunderley swishes an oversized tasseled pouf with dense and decadent embroidery ($525).

Abstract swirls traverse porcelain in Company's nickel-tipped Astrakhan of the Lilian August Collection ($430).

The modernist drinks table from Belle Meade translates the Moroccan tea table for today's top, lacquered base and sterling silver-wrapped