seaside style

As the seasons change, why not freshen your décor with images that evoke a walk on the beach?

1. Natural Feeling Made Goods re-creates the organic beauty of natural coral in the 24-inch round Giselle mirror. Dimensional fiberglass branches come in red or white. $1,000. For a source, 626-441-4140 or www.madegoods.com.

2. Rip Curl Donna Elle's Riding the Wave hand-embroidered pillows — available in cotton or a cotton/hemp blend — capture the inviting textures and energetic forms and colors found wherever land meets sea. $100 each. By The Sea Décor LLC in Lebanon, The Garden Party at the Shopper's Wharf in Bay Head, or www.donnaelle.com for other sources.

3. From the Sea The Regatta pendant (6 inches round, 53 inches long) from Currey & Co. comprises hand-welded Capiz shells and a warm bronze finish. $370. For a source, 877-768-6428 or www.curreycodealers.com.

4. Nautical Nod Alternating wide and thin stripes, a tight seat, and tailored legs define the Lido Host Chair from Barclay Butera's Harbor Collection. A slight flair of the arm and a slight wing detail with nail-head trim give the classic wing chair a modern spin. $3,211. Sweet Pea in Spring Lake or www.barclaybutera.com for other sources.

5. Anchors Away Nautical stripes, knot, and anchor motifs round out the Flagship bedding ensemble from Dransfield & Ross. Cotton duvet covers and assorted pillows feature silver-tone grommet details. Decorative pillows have white duck feather/down fill. The collection ranges from $65 to $330. Sources include Neiman Marcus, P. Smith in Ridgewood, Space Interiors in Long Branch and Red Bank, and Tesori in Upper Montclair.
