1. CORAL WREATH

The ideal accessory for the luxe dressing station of your dreams. Alba mirror by Made Goods (15 inches in diameter), $500, mecoxgardens.com for stores.

2. FAIREST OF THEM ALL

Reinterpreted in carved, unvarnished wood, this mirror-mirror-on-the-wall has a sense of humor. Baroque Acanthus oval mirror by Roost (36½ inches high, 28 inches wide), $805, e-mail info@mazehome.com to order.

3. BUBBLE CLUSTER

Large iron circles make a spectacular but not too serious statement above a sofa. Sheridan silver iron mirror (44 inches high, 53 inches wide), $900, arteriorshome.com for stores.

4. OUTSIDER ARTSY

Rough-hewn but controlled, it's a slightly stern use of beachy flotsam. Lean vertically or hang horizontally. Bodega driftwood mirror by Arteriors Home (54 inches high, 30 inches wide), $718, interiorhomescapes.com.

5. EARTHY MOD

Picture it in a muted, minimalist bedroom, where every element is subtly spectacular. Plume mirror (79 inches high, 26 inches wide), $950, e-mail casamidy@casamidy.com to order.

6. PRICKLY PIZZAZZ

Painted to look like porcupine quills, it has the risky glamour you would see in a fabulous boutique hotel (or in the austere entry on page 93). Porcupine Quill mirror by Janice Minor (33 inches in diameter), $700, horchow.com.

7. SLEEK BAROQUE

Eighteenth-century curves combined with a modern lacquer finish. Hang low over a sideboard or at eye level in an entry. Rococo mirror (28 inches high, 40 inches wide), $595, jonathanadler.com.

8. BURST OF RAYS

Any fireplace—marble, brick, wood—would benefit from this shimmering spectacle. Round and radiating, it also gets high marks for feng shui. Dawn mirror by Made Goods (32 inches in diameter), $1,200, mecoxgardens.com for stores.
