Your Family Photos

Interviews by
JULIA LEWIS

Are they artfully framed, carefully arranged, tacked to a bulletin board, or just scattered about?

"I've got a casual arrangement of photos, along with postcards and invitations, on my mantel. I like to lean and layer them so they don't just sit there. This way, it all has a personal, 1930s English look, without being frowsy."

"This large corkboard in our kitchen is a movable feast of class photos, team pictures, and snapshots. We're always switching out things, depending on the season—and trying to keep it from getting too cluttered!" >>

PHILIP GORRIVAN, INTERIOR DESIGNER

"My photos are haphazardly paper-clipped on the wire-door bookcase in my office.

I have four adventurous children, so I constantly change and update my gallery."
