Guest Wing: Office, Bedroom + Bath

Guests can retreat to a quiet wing of the house in a main-level suite that includes an office with French doors to a private garden. Caroline and Steve Thompson, designer-owners of Cabana Home, a Santa Barbara showroom, and design assistant Margaret Watson kept the spaces light and airy, in a nod to the beach setting. A glass top rests on two terra-cotta plinths, creating an informal desk backed by a pair of tall, open-shelf bookcases. The linen headboard in the bedroom and a grass-cloth wall covering in the adjacent bath set a restful tone. (cabanahome.com) ▶
